CFO Sebastian Dehnen leaves Mister Spex

Dr Sebastian Dehnen, Chief Financial Officer and Member of the Management Board, is leaving Mister Spex at his own request at the end of August 2022 by mutual agreement with the omnichannel optician and will then take up a new professional position outside the company. The supervisory board is already looking for a successor.

"Sebastian has contributed significantly to the successful IPO of Mister Spex and prepared the company for the requirements of the capital market. We regret Sebastian's decision and would like to thank him for his extraordinary commitment, his successful efforts in the further development of the company as well as for the constructive cooperation and wish him all the best for the future", says Dirk Graber, founder and Co-CEO of Mister Spex SE.

Sebastian Dehnen: "My time at Mister Spex has been marked by many exciting and successful events over the past years. I am particularly proud of the successful IPO in July 2021 and the professionalisation of the finance department. With this, we have laid the foundation for the implementation of the medium-term growth strategy. I am very grateful to have been part of this strong leadership team during this eventful period. I will of course continue to follow the successful development of Mister Spex and remain a loyal customer."
